

	Parker, Joshua	Parkerjm71@gmail.com Joshua.parker@sbg.ac.at	Postdoctoral Fellow, University of Salzburg	English and American Studies University of Salzburg Unipark, Erzabt- Klotz-Str. 5020 Salzburg Austria	After several years studying the diachronic development of narrative apostrophe toward 2nd person fiction in British and American texts from the 18th to the 20th century, I now focus on metalepsis, narrative in print advertising, and on theories of place and the narration of place, or places as a form of narration running parallel to plot based on events in time. A current project involves fiction set in Berlin, and how authors link "the city's own narrative" to narratives of protagonists within the city's spaces. I'm also interested in learning more about "narrative therapy."
