| Morgan, James | james.morgan@unifr.ch | Université de Fribourg | Bureau 4215b Av. de l'Europe 20 1700 Fribourg Switzerland | I'm interested in the relationship between narrative theory and biblical studies. Recent plot theory has been particularly helpful for analysing biblical narratives as forms of religious encounter, how narrative rhetoric is at the service of the cognitive and experiential exploration of theological questions, both theoretical and practical. I am currently working on the rhetorical value of motifs from diachronic and synchronic perspectives, especially in ideological literature. I focus mainly on the Gospel of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles, which allow the researcher to explore a rich variety of narrative techniques within a vibrant, theological and pragmatic project. |
