CLIVAZ, Claire	claire.clivaz@unil.ch	Prof. of New Testament and Early Christian Literature (IRSB) University of Lausanne (CH)	Faculté de théologie et de sciences des religions UNIL 1015 Lausanne Switzerland	I work on the literary and documentary texts of the Early Christianity (I-IVth CE), particularly on Luke-Acts, the Gospel of Judas, the Epistle to the Hebrews, and Clement of Alexandria. I am interested in deciphering all the mechanisms of the reading and any indication about the readers. I try always to consider a text as an historical artefact and as a literary and textual object. Combining cultural studies, classical history and philosophy, I am also attentive to the narrativity of a text. I am particularly interested in characterisation, in link to the plot. Internet webpage: www.unil.ch/irsb/page27744.html
